Hello Homestarts Team,

Thanks for providing to me our list of Woodsworth Unit Codes.

As you might know, I've been working on an article about our Internal Waiting List.

For my article, could you please answer the following eleven questions?

(Because of our recent turn-over of staff, I feel a need to re-introduce myself as an Autistic with special needs. I sometimes have difficulties with communication, and I apologize if I am responsible for any misunderstandings. I thank you in advance for any accommodations that you might provide.)

On 250811, you attached to me a docx version of our Unit Codes.

Question 1: Do you normally send to Woodsworth Members editable copies of our information?

On the docx copy of our Unit Codes that you attached to me on 250811, I don't see "2BDR".

Question 2: Could you please let me know our specific definition of "2BDR"?

You wrote that "The member's list provided in the copier room does list the application dates for all entries."

Question 3: In the "Application Date" column, I see months, and I see what I believe to be years. Is this correct?

You wrote that "The member's list does not show the unit types that members have specified..." and "For confidentiality reasons the Co-op has not included that level of detail on the member's list."

Question 4: When you wrote "...the Co-op...", did you mean "Homestarts"?

Question 5: Who made the decision to keep this information from the owners?

Question 6: On what date was this decision was made?

You wrote that I should "...rest assured our master list as all of this information".

I have a copy of our Internal Waiting List, dated 210708 (retrieved from our Copy Room, on 241126), that indicates that I was in position number 62, with a specification that I am waiting for a "2BDR". On this version of our Internal Waiting List, the date of my entry is 241022.

Question 7: On our Internal waiting List dated 210708, was I indeed listed as being in position 62, waiting for a "2BDR", on 241022?

I have a copy of our Internal Waiting List that I retrieved from our Copy Room on 250615. This list was not dated. This list indicates that I was in positions 35 and 63.

Question 8: Was I indeed in positions 35 and 63 on 250615?

I have a copy of our Internal Waiting List that I retrieved from our Copy Room on 250907. This list was not dated. This list seems to indicate the I've been in position 34 since June 21, or June 2021. The entry before me on this list is "Dec-14", and the one before that is "Jan-15".

Question 9: Could you please help me understand all of the paragraph above?

In the email to which I am replying right now, you wrote that I am "...currently #34 overall on the internal waiting list, and #17 for a two bedroom unit."

Question 10: Can you please let me know the specific unit code or codes for which I am waiting?

Recent Internal Waiting Lists have not been dated.

Question 11: Do you intend to follow our standard practice of dating our Internal Waiting Lists?

Thank you so much for your help with my article.

:) Michael

Hello Michael,

You are currently #34 overall on the internal waiting list, and #17 for a two bedroom unit.

The member's list provided in the copier room does list the application dates for all entries. The member's list does not show the unit types that members have specified, but rest assured our master list has all of this information. For confidentiality reasons the Co-op has not included that level of detail on the member's list.

I have attached a document with the unit codes for Woodsworth.

If there is anything else we can help you with, please don't hesitate to ask.

Best Regards, Woodsworth Team

Hi [REDACTED],

I'm writing to ask you to please let me know my position on the Internal Waiting List for a Two Bedroom Apartment in our Medium-Rise.

I see on the Internal Waiting List, from our Copy Room, dated July 4, 2025, that I was number 63.

I see on the Internal Waiting List, from our Copy Room, dated August 9, 2025, that I am presently number 34.

I am particularly interested in my position on the Internal Waiting List for a Two Bedroom Apartment in the Medium-Rise.

Historically, we have known specific dates and times of Internal Relocation Applications. Could you please let me know all of the specific dates and times of all of the entries on the current Internal Waiting List? For each entry, please include the Unit Types in which Members are interested.

Also, in my records, I can't find a comprehensive list of our codes for our unit types (eg. T4A4). I have some of them, but I'm not confident in their veracity. Could I please trouble you to send these to me as a complete and accurate document?

Thanks [REDACTED]. I appreciate your help with this.

:) Michael
